

NOTCHED TROWEL

28 CM - STEEL

SQUARE NOTCHES

Ensures even adhesive distribution.

CORK HANDLE

Provides a firm and comfortable grip.

STEEL BLADE

Strong, wear-resistant and designed for intensive use.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

|                |                                                                                                                                            |
|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Product        | 28 cm steel notched trowel                                                                                                                 |
| Notch type     | Square                                                                                                                                     |
| Blade length   | 280 mm                                                                                                                                     |
| Blade material | Carbon steel                                                                                                                               |
| Handle         | Cork                                                                                                                                       |
| Available in   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>✓ 4 x 4 mm</li><li>✓ 6 x 6 mm</li><li>✓ 8 x 8 mm</li><li>✓ 10 x 10 mm</li><li>✓ 12 x 12 mm</li></ul> |

DESIGNED FOR PROFESSIONALS

Durable, efficient and reliable.